

SMS LITERACY COMMITTEE FUNDRAISER 4/22-4/26

Mon – Fri: COIN WARS:

- ELA classes by teacher compete for early dismissal and ice pops by contributing coins to their ELA teacher's jar in the café at lunchtime. For every coin contributed, that ELA class gains points – the same value of the coin.
 - For example, a quarter is worth 25 points.
- Team A may prevent Team B's points from counting by putting a bill in Team B's container.
- For example, Team A may have 200 points in coins. Team B may put a dollar bill in Team A's container, which would reduce Team A's points to 100.
 - (A dollar bill is worth 100 points).
- ELA Teacher Classes with the highest number of points wins.
