

Students4H2O Presents...

"DROP BY DROP" ART CONTEST

CONTEST DETAILS

- Create art that exemplifies the theme: What does the Global Water Crisis mean to you? For inspiration, use the books "A Long Walk to Water," "Just Add Water," and "Nya's Long Walk: A Step at a Time."
- The winning design (elementary, middle, or high) will be printed on the program for "Drop by Drop: Watering the Seeds of Change in South Sudan" on March 25th at the Lyric Theatre.

RULES

- Students must attend a participating school of our "A Long Walk To Water fundraising contest."
 - Participating schools: BCE, CGE, CLE, FAWE, HSE, JD Parker, JBE, PCE, PSE, PWE, AMS, HOMS, IMS, JBHS, MCHS, SFHS, Clark Advanced Learning Center, and Hope Center for Autism.
- Accepted Mediums: marker, colored pencil, watercolor, pastels, acrylics, oil, mix media, and photo.
- Artwork must be created on a 8.5 x 11 or 11 x 14 size.
- Submission deadline: February 21st, 2020.
- Hand into school front office on contest deadline or submit via email to info@Students4H2O.org